

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
CITY OF HUNTSVILLE REQUEST
FOR APPLICATIONS
CDBG ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

The City of Huntsville, Alabama is issuing a Request for Applications (RFA) informing the public that 501(c)3 non-profit organizations may submit applications for Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funding for Economic Development activities for Program Year 2025 from Wednesday, April 2, 2025, to Wednesday, May 7, 2025.

Responses to the RFA must be submitted online through the following link: <https://portal.neighborlysoftware.com/HUNTSVILLEAL/Participant> The application link will be available for access beginning on Wednesday, April 2, 2025.

The City of Huntsville, Alabama receives funding for Economic Development activities through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. The Economic Development Program funds may be used to further economic stability, increase the standard of living, and build a highly skilled, flexible workforce. Eligible activities identified as priority needs for the City of Huntsville include, but are not limited to:

- Employment training and education programs
- Job creation and retention
- Technical or financial assistance for small businesses and entrepreneurs
- Business development activities in underserved areas
- Other activities that promote economic empowerment and self-sufficiency for Huntsville residents

Funds are limited to projects that, if implemented, meet a CDBG National Objective (benefit to low- and moderate-income persons, prevention and elimination of slums and blight, and urgent need) and meet the Economic Development Priority Need and Goal.

Please refer all questions prior to the submission deadline, Wednesday, May 7, 2025 to:
